The committee was discharged accordingly.

The Senate took up for consideration a bill, entitled a bill making compensation to wardens of the poor; which was read the second time, and, on motion of Mr. Montgomery, ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. Shepard, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution in favor of the Roanoke Navigation Company; which was read the second time, and, on his motion, amended and passed.

Mr. Carson, from the Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred two resolutions relative to the revenue laws of this State, reported a bill, entitled a bill to amend the revenue laws of this State; which was read the first time and passed, and, on motion of Mr. Shepard, ordered to lie on the table and be printed.

Mr. Spruill moved that the resolution in favor of the Roanoke Navigation Company, be now taken up for consideration; which was agreed to. He then moved that the rule of the Senate which prohibits the reading of public resolutions twice in on the same day be dispensed with; which was also concurred in.

The Senate then, on motion of Mr. Spruill, resolved itself into a committee of the whole House, Mr. Dockery being called to the Chair. The resolution was then read the third time; and after having spent some time thereon, the committee rose, and the Chairman reported the resolution to the House without amendment. The resolution was then put upon its third reading; which was decided in the affirmative—yeas 25—nays 20.

Mr. Reid demanded the yeas and nays, which were as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were,

MESSRS. Albright,
Cherry,
Davidson,

MESSRS. McDiarmid,
Myers,
Reding,
